TO THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

Recently, Northwestern, Western Illinois University, and CS Stars, a subsidiary of Marsh Insurance, announced that someone had stolen records containing the personal information of over 737,000 individuals. Although these latest thefts are getting media attention today, the fact of the matter is that it is just a drop in the bucket. More than 35 million identities have been compromised so far this year.

Our company makes your personal information useless to any criminal, immediately. We guarantee it. No other company in the country does that. It's why we are the fastest growing company in this industry, and why we have been featured in more than 300 news stories around the U.S. in outlets like The Wall Street Journal, CNN and CNBC.

We have a special offer for Chicago and especially those affected by the recent compromise: log on to our website at www.LifeLock.com or call our toll-free number this week. Mention the promotion code: "Chicago" when prompted and we will give you the first 30 days free. Once you are a client we're offering you 10% off your fees for life — your identity will always be safe.

I know the news of identity theft continues to alarm you, but don't worry we've got you covered.

We guarantee it.

Sincerely,

R. Todd Davis
